DAY AT DUNALLEY
Yesterday 29 St. Aloysius students from Grades 4-9 travelled down to Dunallely Primary School for a day of fun and activities. Thanks to funds raised from our Do-A-Thon and Hawaii Five-O days, we were able to provide and set up garden beds with herbs and vegies, as well as paint and decorate 70 pavers which will be arranged as a feature artwork in the grounds. Special thanks to Bayview Grocer for supplying a BBQ lunch for all the students, Wisby’s for donating a bus for us and our Vinnies and Mini-Vinnies students who baked delicious treats for morning tea.
A full report about the day, complete with photos, will be in next week’s newsletter.

PUBLIC SPEAKING NEWS
St. Aloysius was recently represented at the Rostrum Voice of Youth public speaking competition by Niamh Brady of 8K. Niamh spoke on the topic “The End of the Beginning”, stunning the audience with her emotive discussion of the Holocaust. She received a special commendation for her performance, in particular her outstanding use of gesture and silence. These are often areas that junior speakers struggle with, but Niamh was so natural and poignant that many of the audience were moved to tears. Congratulations, Niamh on a superb performance!

LIPOGRAM COMPETITION
Lachlan Cooke in 4W entered a Lipogram competition open to Sofos students in Catholic schools in Tasmania. He had to produce a piece of writing that didn’t contain the letter “e”. His entry won the grade 3/4 section. Well done Lochie!

A SAD DAY FOR KANGAROOS FANS
On Saturday I saw my Kangaroos play football against Mrs Williams’ Swans. I was happy until half way through as Kangaroos forgot to play hard. Kangaroos lost in an appalling way - 131 to 92. All Kangaroos fans thought how sad it was.

Today is Monday and I was worrying what Mrs Williams would say. Mrs Williams did not rub it in but Mrs Williams did look happy all day today. Mrs Williams’ motto is: “You can’t always win but savour it if you do!”
