A WORD OF POPE FRANCIS

“This mystery of the Trinity speaks to us as well, above all in relationship to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. Baptism actually the Holy Spirit has situated us within the kingdom of God, a communion of love. God of three Persons whose love is such as to form a sing and this ‘family’ is not closed in on itself, rather it is open itself in creation, in history and has entered into the history of the world, and through the ages, by bearing public witness to our Lord and Saviour. This is a mystery which we are called to contemplate and to live, as our human family to make us sharers in its life. This is what we do when we live in a similar mutual sharing of life and love.”

(Trinity Sunday - 2016)
