A WORD OF POPE FRANCIS
"At the same time, from our awareness of the worthing circumstances – psychological, historic biological – it follows that without detracting from evangelic ideal, there is a need to accompany v and patience the eventual stages of personal gro these progressively appear, making room for the mercy, which spurs us on to do our best. I und those who prefer a more rigorous pastoral care v no room for confusion, but I sincerely believe the wants a Church attentive to the goodness which Spirit sows in the midst of human weakness….”
