A WORD OF POPE FRANCIS

“How many times during these first months of Jubilee have we heard about the works of mercy? Today the Lord invites us to make a serious examination of conscience. Indeed, it is good for us not to forget that mercy is not an abstract word, but a way of life: a person can either be merciful or unmerciful; it is a lifestyle. I choose to live in a way that is merciful or I choose to live in a way that is not merciful. It is one thing to speak of mercy, another to live mercy. What makes mercy possible is the constant dynamism in order to go and reach those in need and the necessities of those in material hardship. Mercy has eyes to see, hands to lift up again.”
