

ST ALOYSIUS

CATHOLIC COLLEGE

1st March 2018

Dear Parents, Guardians and students

The Personal Learning Plan (PLP) for the ATSI students will be changing this year. If your child has an IEP, I will be using funding to help support your child in achieving these academic and social goals.

For those students who would like to learn to play an instrument, there are many music teachers who come to our school and I would like to extend an invitation for your child to take advantage of these teachers. Their costs are all different and we can come to an agreement on the gap that I can help with ATSI funding.

- Greg teaches piano, saxophone, flute and clarinet and will be available at Huntingfield Campus on Thursday and Kingston Campus on Friday.
- Joel teaches guitar at the Huntingfield campus on Tuesdays
- Sean teaches drums at both Huntingfield and Kingston Campus.
- We also have tutors, Anita who teaches singing, Ben who teaches bass guitar and Rachel who teaches violin.

If you would like your child to participate in the music program being offered to Indigenous students, please fill out the expression of interest at the bottom of this letter. I will contact the teachers and organise lessons for your child within school hours.

If there is another area of interest that you would like support in for your child, please contact me to discuss.

Kind regards,

Natasha Harris
