

ST ALOYSIUS

CATHOLIC COLLEGE

10th April 2017

Dear Parents/Guardians

Firstly, congratulations to our Aloysius students who were the leading house after all first term activities. We are delighted to announce that they will travel to Sandy Bay Beach in the last two lessons of term to either relax or partake in some of the activities on offer. There will be lifeguards on duty that day. Some treats will obviously be given but lunch will need to be provided that day.

Students may wish to have a swim as it is forecasted to be a pleasant 22 degrees. In the event of inclement weather students will experience Gold glass movie style event in the drama room.

Students will need to bring the following items: Lunch, towel, bathers (optional), sunscreen and a hat.

Students are able to wear their sport uniform on Thursday for the event.

Please do not hesitate to contact Mr Kay if you require any further information.

Yours sincerely
