Dear Parents /Guardians

Grade 10 Retreat Day with Dave Jorna Friday 2nd November

On Friday, 2nd November all the Grade 10 students have a retreat day with Dave Jorna. The day will be a wonderful opportunity for Grade 10 students and their teachers to share time together while working with an experienced facilitator. The focus of the day will be for students to reflect on their journey at St Aloysius Catholic College, provide an opportunity to share memories and prepare for the journey ahead after graduation.

Dave Jorna has worked with previous groups of Grade 10 students at St Aloysius and students have found the day rewarding, an invaluable bonding experience and, on occasions, challenging. Dave is based in Queensland and works with senior students throughout the country and has a sensitivity and humor that is both entertaining and welcoming.

I would like to emphasise that the day is a compulsory day of schooling for all students and that, if possible, all out of school appointments should be made on another day or after school. If, in the event of students being ill and unable to attend, we would ask parents to phone the College on Friday morning.
