

ST ALOYSIUS

CATHOLIC COLLEGE

23 August 2018

Dear Parents & Guardians of Senior Drama Students

As in years past, the College have organised production team t-shirts for all cast and crew participating in this year's Senior Drama performance, All Balls and Ashes by Mark Roberts.

Students will wear these t-shirts for the full rehearsal period and for each of the six performances. The T-shirts have been designed by our students, and will feature the poster design for the show on the front, with a full cast list on the back. T-shirts are being professionally made at a cost of $25. Payment can be paid through Qkr (under the College Uniform order & payment section) or in person at the Uniform Shop.

If for any reason purchase of this item poses a difficulty for families, please email Ms Bree Crocker at bree.crocker@catholic.tas.edu.au to make alternate arrangements.

We are looking forward to a fabulous production with the Senior Drama team and look forward to seeing many family and friends in attendance on performance nights. Don't forget to get your tickets.

Yours sincerely
